

Modernistic Art In All Its Forms A Forum Exhibit

The modernist painters have been buffeted and reviled beyond endurance. Carroll Bockwith has charged them with the worship of ugliness. Thomas E. Kirby has prophesied their ultimate extinction, and Louis C. Tiffany has denied that they are even artists. It is really too much, and the revolutionists are in revolution.

The Armory International Exhibition of Modern Art, which was held in 1913, fired a shot that was heard around the world, but sound cannot so on reverberating even in echo, in perpetuity, and so the modernists, the really and truly modernists, have resolved to again show the sceptics and the critics what they have done and what they can do. The Forum Exhibition at the Anderson Galleries is the result.

Under the leadership of Robert Henri, Willard Huntington Wright, Dr. Christian Brinton, Alfred Stieglitz, W. H. de B. Nelson and Dr. John Weichsel, there has been assembled the most representative exhibition given since the Armory show. The elements, the objectivists, the subjectivists, the color musicists, the neo-impressionists, the rhythmists, the futurists, the cubists, the disciples of seychronism, and other schools, have all sent in examples of their work, and in the present showing you have modernism in all its glory, all its depravity.

The polychromatic, the shot-to-pieces, the molecular, the colorist in all possible and impossible dimensions has been given a chance and the public is now also given a chance to see and to admire—if it can.

All the sixteen contributors have concerned themselves with the one problem, namely, to master the trick of aesthetic organization and of circumventing the one means for obtaining indisputable results. The visitor, in spite of scepticism, will of necessity be interested in seeing how the Forum artists have come about doing this. The working artists take themselves seriously and scientifically. They are tremendously industrious and often exceedingly decorative. They are, most of them, utterly indifferent toward externalities. They do not care if a straight line is crooked or if a curved line is uncurved. They seek, in season and out of season, after the soul interpretation, the registration of rhythmic vibrations, the symbolization of mass, of volume, of sentiment and the spiritual.

It will not do to say that they are all crazy, which is no easy. They are serious, in spite of the fact that they do not always appear so. They strive for the scientific, and in the Forum exhibition there is a chance to see what the modernists are doing, what results they are getting, and to note the trend of the school.

Enthusiasts and doubters alike owe it to themselves to visit the Forum show and observe the exhibited results.

3 CITIES LINKED BY PHONE.

Transcontinental Entertainment is held by Western Union Society.

About 25 members of the Western Union Educational Society of New York met at No. 24 Walker Street last night to participate in an entertainment and exhibition of transcontinental telephony. The exhibition was preceded by a beef-steak dinner and speeches by prominent telegraph officials. Similar meetings in San Francisco and Omaha were connected by telephone, and the audience from the Pacific Coast could be plainly heard after each speech and musical number.

A motion picture show illustrating the development and construction of the telephone line across the continent formed a part of the entertainment, and with the roaring of the Pacific Ocean depicted on the screen was interesting and instructive.

GIRLS! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

25 cent bottle of "Danderine" makes hair thick, glossy and wavy.

Removes all dandruff, stops itching scalp and falling hair.

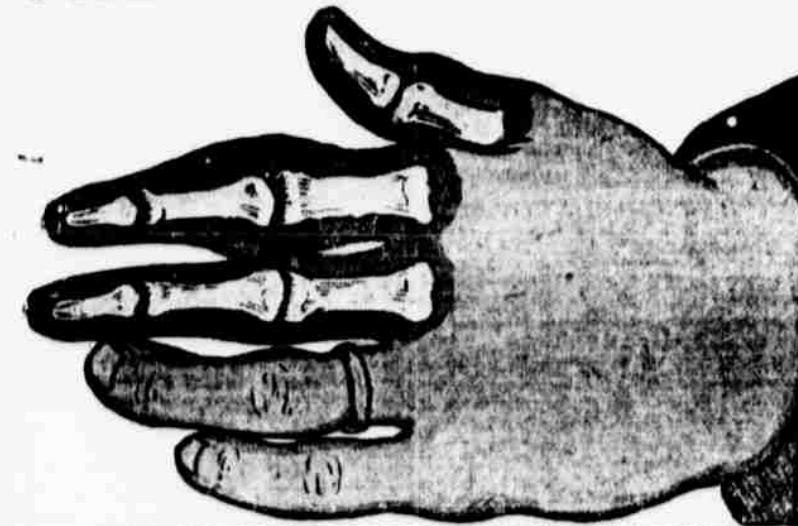

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair, soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine. It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knott's Danderine—now all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, luffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair, but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp. Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp, and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this. Adv.

SAYS ENLARGED RHEUMATIC JOINTS DISAPPEAR UNDER TREATMENT

Advise Joints Be Kept Warm—Protect Hands From Cold Winds and Cold Water

The question has often been asked whether the misshapen finger joints due to rheumatism would return to normal, said W. A. Varney, the discoverer of Var-ne-sis.

ONE FORM OF RHEUMATISM VAR-NE-SIS TAKES CARE OF

I am going to answer this question by producing evidence that proves conclusively that they do. I want to suggest that it is important to keep the joints warm and protect the hands from cold winds and water.

Take the case of Mr. Holden whose fingers were bent and deformed—to be him today you could not believe he ever had rheumatism. Again, Mrs. Breed's fingers were actually useless, they were so stiff and deformed—she is well today, fingers perfect. Mrs. McMaister is another woman who regained the use of her fingers as well as other joints through Var-ne-sis. Mr. Coyle's fingers were almost rigid—they have gone back to normal. Mr. Nelson's fingers were deformed to a marked degree—you'd never believe he had rheumatism. Nurse Nightingale's fingers were crooked and deformed—she is now normal and she gives all the credit to Var-ne-sis.

Thousands have told me that Var-ne-sis has been the means of their crooked and deformed joints returning to normal. In this form of rheumatism not only are the hands mis-shaped but other joints gradually become involved.

The disease may remain quiet for awhile, but there will be acute symptoms from time to time—enough in the early cases to remind you that the disease is creeping to other joints. If neglected, the fingers become so stiff that it will be impossible to open or close the hand, the knees draw up in the extreme cases and the patient is often helpless.

Physicians will tell you that they can do nothing for this disease, and it is the same form of rheumatism that Var-ne-sis has been so successful in.

No other preparation produces such evidence. Why? A description of the above cases will be sent by addressing W. A. Varney, Lynn, Mass. Tear this out and mail.

Var-ne-sis is a simple vegetable preparation and does not contain the ordinary drugs so often given for rheumatism.

Get Var-ne-sis. Now—today—at Ricker-Hugan and other reliable druggists. Tell your druggist to get Var-ne-sis for you from his wholesaler or send to W. A. Varney, Lynn, Mass.—Adv.
